MR. GREGORY J. WRINN

MR. JOHN J. HURLEY

“And it shall be done . . .” Thus, the final chapter comes to a memorable close, and with it excitement of the football games, “proms,” and banquets—which are so clear in our minds—dims gradually, only to become cherished memories in the future. Perhaps the most cherished memories are the teachers who, through their guidance, patience, and understanding, contribute much to our way of life.

Through his tireless efforts in trying to form a properly civic-minded youth, and to prepare him for his way in life, Mr. John J. Hurley, in the eyes of the class, is certainly deserving of this honor which we bestow upon him. His ever-present willingness to aid a student in difficulty, his constant search of sufficient data for the students wishing to attend college, and his aid in preparing our year-book are but a few of the many favors this wonderful man has done for the future citizens of Ludlow.

Mr. Gregory J. Wrinn, a music teacher in the Ludlow High School for the past two years, has certainly won his way into our hearts. Many long hours of tedious rehearsals are necessary for the production of successful musical events, and Mr. Wrinn has relinquished much of his time to help us during the past two years. The school surely owes much to this man who has brought music, in its full triumph, back to Ludlow.

Therefore, on behalf of the graduating class, to these two devoted men, Mr. John J. Hurley and Mr. Gregory J. Wrinn, we dedicate this 1959 edition of THE LUDLOW LION.

FOREWORD

In a year when so many people are urging increased education for leadership in international military might, we—the editors of this yearbook—have taken as our theme Peace—not a submissive, passive, or grovelling peace, nor a dishonorable peace—but a peace achieved through dignified education.

We believe firmly that this record of our activities as citizens of a school community is a miniature version of what education can achieve on a world-wide scale. Having learned to respect and to exemplify in our little school world the basic principles of democracy and of the fundamental precepts of the dignity and worth of the individual, we submit this 1959 Ludlow Lion as a tangible record of this basic tenet of education in a democracy: Peace is possible when everyone honors, respects, wants, and especially, works for it!

A MESSAGE

To the Class of 1959:

Yours is the first class to have received a high school education entirely under a half-session school day. That circumstances have necessitated this curtailed day, this committee—and previous ones—has recognized and deplored. However, we feel certain that the more serious members of your group—and that includes the great majority of you—have not had a curtailed education; your records show that you have attained the goals set for you by your teachers. Now, it is up to each one of you to see that he sustains this degree of effort in his post-secondary-school ventures—be he in business, in one of the military services, in a vocational training school, or in college.

It is easy to succeed when success is assured; it is commendable to succeed when success is fraught with obstacles. The fact that you have managed to meet scholastic requirements under difficult conditions and that you have continued a full-time extracurricular program under those same difficulties will stand you in good stead.

You take with you as a class our congratulations for the dignified and orderly achievement of many goals—scholastic and extracurricular. May you as individuals persevere with the same tenacity in the pursuit of your various hopes and aspirations!

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF 1959

The completion of your "Yearbook" serves as a fitting memorial to the events and activities associated with your high school days. The many items which comprise the book will, in later years, serve to bring back pleasant memories of your days at Ludlow High School. The pictures of the members of your class, the class will and ballots, all these serve to bring together the Class of 1959. I know that both now and in future years you will receive much enjoyment from this most rewarding endeavor. Your reminiscing in the years to come will be more vivid because of the "Yearbook." I join with you in appreciation to those who have made the book possible and realize fully the amount of time and effort that the final product has entailed. My congratulations to your success in the creation of the yearbook of the Class of 1959.

George E. Russell

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1959

I should like to express most sincere thanks and deepest appreciation to you, the members of the Class of 1959, for having given me the opportunity to lead you through our final and most important school year. Without your cooperation and unity, we should not have attained the success we did achieve. I should especially like to thank those who served under me this year—class officers, homeroom representatives, the members and chairmen of our various class committees. I wish to pay tribute to our class officers of previous years; their conscientious efforts paved the way and made easier the tasks of our senior year.

Not only did we as a class work well together, but we enjoyed—as have many classes before us—the aid and cooperation of several teachers who guided us in the production of our Senior Show and of The Ludlow Lion. It is also fitting that we include in our thanks an ex officio member of the faculty—Miss Mary Szczygiel, Mr. Russell's devoted secretary. We are grateful for her patient indulgence of our many requests. No more long-suffering member of the school personnel exists!

I wish every member of this class the best of luck in the years to come; I am proud, honored, and grateful to have served as your senior president. I anticipate seeing all of you at our first class reunion in 1964 and at every subsequent reunion!

Sincerely,
William J. Nelson, President

PAX VOBISCUM

We, the Class of 1959, must say two entirely different things at once—that is, we must say both "Hail" and "Farewell" to two people who have so long and so well served the youth of Ludlow.

To Albert Bassette, devoted custodian and head of maintenance for thirty-four years, we extend our gratitude for devoted work far beyond the requirements of his job. Every extracurricular activity held within our high school was a major event to "Bert" as well as to the class sponsoring it. If our class dinners, dances, "proms," concerts, and senior shows have been successful, we can thank "Bert" for his sincere interest in us. Like Mr. Chips, "Bert" has no children of his own, but thousands of children—every pupil in the Ludlow schools under his custodial eye has been his child. For his fatherly interest in us, then, we hail Mr. Bassette, and in farewell, we wish him many years of happy, contented retirement.

Mrs. Irene C. Hennessey, for thirty-five years the teaching and supervising principal of the Primary School, we recognize as a sincere, thorough, and devoted teacher. In September, we once approached her class with misgivings; she was rumored to be an exacting teacher! In June of that school year, we left her class with reluctance. Even we graduates of her third grade acknowledged her a "good but a strict teacher." Now, as graduates of the Ludlow High School, we appreciate her efforts even more. So, we salute Mrs. Irene C. Hennessey—a dedicated, a meticulous, an impartial teacher, and always a gracious lady!

PARABLES of PEACE

A REIGN OF PEACE IS PROMISED

Peace is a friendly condition, while war is a relationship of public armed hostility. Until recent years, peace was considered just an interval between wars. It was a negative rather than a positive condition. We, known as the class of '59 for the past four years, have united our efforts as a class to preserve everlasting peace. We have attempted to mold the class and our activities into a symbol of peace. Our first step toward our major goal was to elect the Security Council, which was to guide us through our first crucial year. Head of the Security Council was the Secretary General, Elaine Chomyn, with a worthy assistant, Patricia Richardson. Head of the Secretariate Division and keeper of the records was Alice Gagne, while the International Banker was Joan Morton. Members of the General Assembly were Sandra Axiotis, Sally Drost, Dorothy Malek, and Barbara Watson. However, peace is not only a continuous strain of work; there are many moments of pleasure. The General Assembly attempted to draw the citizens together by holding our first major activity—the class banquet. The year was brought to a close by a class picnic at Forest Park.

Our second step was to make our sophomore year even more successful than our freshman year. This goal was achieved through the united efforts of the newly elected officers: Secretary General, Alice Gagne; Assistant Secretary General, Robert Podoski; Secretariate, Jeanne SanSoucie; and International Banker, John Humber. Members of the General Assembly were Carolyn Amos, Lorraine Fontaine, Constance Podoski, and Barbara Watson. Under their leadership a successful dance was held, and the year was concluded by our never-to-be forgotten sophomore picnic held also at Forest Park.

Our third and second most significant step was the activities of our junior year under the direction of Secretary General, John Humber; Assistant Secretary General, William Nelson; Secretariate, Alice Gagne; International Banker, Paul Brodeur; and these members of the General Assembly—Elaine Chomyn, Mary Ellen Kronick, Dorothy Malek, and Barbara Watson. This was the year when we were given the opportunity to lay before other citizens the results of our collective efforts towards peace and unity. Our first responsibility was the Junior Dance; then, this wonderful year was concluded with the Junior Promenade, Sayonara, held in honor of the graduating seniors.

At last dawned our final and most precious year—our Senior year. In order to make this year our best, we elected eight capable people to direct our activities: Secretary General, William Nelson; Assistant Secretary General, David Dzuira; Secretariate, Jeanne SanSoucie; International Banker, Constance Podoski; and these members of the General Assembly, Dolores Dec, Alice Gagne, Barbara Mishol, and Lorraine Talbot. We were then drawn into the excitement of senior activities. Our first serious step was the production of The Ludlow Lion. We relived the musical past in our momentous Senior Show, the theme of which was “Fifty Years of Music in Review.” Now in the last week of school we attended the 1959 Junior Promenade and had our Senior Class Banquet; we also planted our class ivy and hope that as it branches and grows abundantly across these hallowed halls of the Ludlow High School, so may the Class of 1959 grow in successful peace.

The time has come when we depart from the halls of Ludlow High School, but our cherished memories will always remain with us. So, we terminate our class history with this thought and hope: “Blessed are the peacemakers, for they are the children of God.”

CLASS POEM

A fortress of strength before us stands—
A rock of knowledge our guide—
Behind us now, those Ivy Walls—
And now we take on life's stride.

It's over now, these days of joy,
But all good things must end—
Now we'll plan to conquer the future—
And take this road that bends.

Just to recall the laughter once here,
Just to have an old friend or two
Seems a sorrow too great to bear,
But is now a new burden for you.

Like me, tho', you'll face it squarely;
You'll go on and surely strong—
You'll see that you've learned enough
To keep you from going wrong!

How can I write of all our fun—
These years of youthful bliss?
How can I preserve these times
In a poem such as this?

We'll all remember this school—
These teachers who've been just great,
Shaping our teasing characters true—
Despite our constant debate!

No truer words could ever be said;
No book could ever say
Just what these twelve years mean—
The memory they hold of today.

Tomorrow comes on so very fast;
Things look bright for all—
Hesitating, we wonder—
Will one of us stumble or fall?

Here is where we ask the Lord,
Who's been with us all the time,
"Please Lord, help us all
To live a life sublime."

AND WHAT IS WRITTEN SHALL BE EXECUTED

We, the class of 1959, being of tenacious bodies and tranquil minds, do hereby bequeath the following:

Collectively, to the FACULTY, a handkerchief to wipe away the tears which are sure to be shed upon our departure. May your sorrows be comforted and your patience restored;

To the JUNIORS, the remains of our 1959 Chevrolet and best of luck in obtaining a Senior Show. May you live through Driver Education to participate in it;

To the SOPHOMORES, our "beloved" faculty and administration and their unpredictable assignments. May you absorb knowledge and ward off insanity;

To the FRESHMEN, three more years of eating those "wonderful" school lunches. May your druggist never run out of Alka-Seltzer.

Individually, we bequeath the following:

JUDITH ABARE leaves her place as co-head majorette to whoever fights hard enough to get it.

CAROLYN AMOS leaves to her brother, Bob, her English outlines and Shakespeare.

SANDRA AXIOTIS leaves to Carol Charland her moldy towel, shower clogs, and gym suit.

PATRICIA BALTAZAR leaves her ability to get to the bus stop on time and find a seat to Marcia Podosek.

DAVID BERGERON leaves his ability to get out of English homework to his sister Kathy.

BARBARA BLANCHARD wills her ability to get "A's" in Stenography to her sister Jeanne.

RICHARD BOURDEAU wills to his sister Anne his seat in English.

JAMES BRENNAN leaves to Tracey Baldrate, Mike Bonsiewicz, and Richard Bushey a smoke and a coke every morning at Ernie's Spa.

MARGUERITE BROCHU leaves to all bus pupils her ability to get up in the morning, wash, get dressed, eat breakfast, and catch the bus—all in ten minutes.

PAUL BRODEUR leaves to John Saletnik his ability to play football.

EDWARD BRUNELLE leaves his ability to get out of Miss Saulnier's English homework to his brother Dennis.

JUDITH BURROUGHS leaves her seat on the school bus to Maxine Tetreault.

THOMAS CARROLL leaves to the Class of 1960 one penny in hopes that they may buy their own car for Driver Education.

PATRICIA CHABOT leaves her freckles to Grace Dias, who has such a love for them.

JOHN CHENAILLE leaves his ability to get along with Mr. Russell and Mrs. Ziwo to Barbara Kivior.

ELAINE CHOMYN leaves to Ida Bruni and Marcia Podosek her sneakers, with hopes that they will help the girls to meet Hi-News deadlines.

ROSEMARY CIPRIANO wills her band majorette signal uniform to the ever-longing Susan Meunier and Tillie Queiroga, so that they may fight over it.

ANTONIO CONDE leaves to Joyce Boulrice all his troubles and his teachers—if she wants them.

CONSTANCE COTO leaves to Cynthia and Clifton Coto her long hours of homework that they never seem to have.

MARY ANN COUTURE leaves to her brother Ray her seat in "Noise Incorporated" in Mr. Savoia's room.

PAULINE CYRANOWSKI leaves to Lynda Fidalgo and Jackie Palatino her love for working on Fridays at the "Double D."

DOLORES DEC leaves a year of unused knowledge, unsuccessful experiments, and unrequired explosions in Chemistry to three aspiring scientists, Chuckie Milroy, Tom Cellilli, and Bill Kolodziej.

LINDA DICKEY leaves to her brother Bruce Miss Saulnier's long orations on English literary history.

GERALDINE DOMINICK leaves to her sister Diane her gym suit, which she may outgrow, and soon!

PAUL DORE leaves to his big buddy, Tracy Baldrate, the hope of someday becoming a Senior.

SALLY DROST leaves to her sister Sandy the pleasure and enjoyment derived from majorettes.

JUDITH DUMAS leaves to Pat Appicelli the top high shelf of her locker, providing she can reach it.

DONALD DUBE leaves to his sister Doris his literature book which promises to give her even less enjoyment than he derived from it.

RICHARD DUQUETTE leaves to his sister Jeanne his ability to sleep through Miss Saulnier's long orations, even though he sits in the seat closest to her desk.

EVELYN DVORCHAK leaves to her brother Bob the long ride on the bus each morning and her seat in English.

DAVID DZIURA leaves to Ida Bruni his gym sneakers to aid her cheerleading efforts.

BRUCE ELLIS leaves to anyone who can bear it his seat in the lunchroom.

DIANE ELLIS leaves to Maxine Richards and Richard Stone her ability to talk in Mr. Savoia's Consumer Economics class.

GEORGIANNA FALCONER leaves to Pamela Jack her old paint brushes.

LORRAINE FONTAINE wills to the unfortunate members of the Junior class who plan to take Chemistry next year one word of warning, "Don't."

ALICE GAGNE leaves to Jack Fonte her seat in Pro Merito, so that he can become the best educated goalie in the Pioneer Valley Soccer League.

JEANNE GAMACHE leaves to Ida Bruni and her sister Elaine her ability to type 42 words a minute with 43 errors.

JOHN GAMACHE leaves to Rudy Magiera his wet gym towel.

MARSHA GILMAN leaves her license and car that she never got to Sandy White, so she can get to school earlier.

LOUIS GRAVELIN leaves his seat in Miss Saulnier's English class and in Mr. Boita's Trig class to his brother Charles.

JOHN GUZIK leaves his seat in Physical Science to his sister Rosemary—if she would like to have it.

PATRICIA HENRICHON leaves to Joyce VanWyck her love for many joyful rides on the school bus during winter weather.

JOHN HIERSCHE wills his seat in sixth-period English class to Charles Gravelin, wishing him as sound a rest behind some tall person as he had behind his brother Herman.

HERMAN HIERSCHE leaves to his cousin Ernest his wishes that he may someday graduate from Ludlow High, if he is successful.

JOHN HUMBER leaves to Gerry O'Gorman two Polish bread, salami sandwiches and a cookie to be eaten after an exhilarating shower following gym.

WILLIAM JACIOW leaves to Pinky Graveline his ability to confuse Mr. Cournoyer in the classroom.

DORIS MAE JARVIS leaves to her brother her ability to get along with Miss Murtagh and Miss Saulnier.

JANE KIELBANIA leaves to Christine Kawalec her love for climbing stairs early in the morning.

PETER KLASSANOS leaves his accumulated unsigned make-up slips to no one; he wants to hoard them as mementos of a year spent in Miss Saulnier's homeroom.

JAMES KOCHANNEK leaves to Don Lever his singing voice to be used only when he is alone.

RITA KULIG leaves to Marion Vautrain and Helen Mondry her love for sports.

CHET LATA leaves to the Junior class his ability and the ability of his fellow Seniors to sing to Mr. Fryer during first lunch.

BARBARA LEWIS leaves her height to Judy Lima.

CHRIS LIMA leaves to Bobby Rebello his admiration for southern girls.

MARY LOPATA leaves to her brother Casimir her great love for Mrs. Cormier's study hall.

DIANE LYON leaves to Carol Ehlers and Susan Bassler her undying love for orals.

DAVID MACKEY leaves his cheat notes for Physical Science to anyone who needs them.

DONALD MACKEY leaves his skill to arrive late in English to anyone who takes gym and loves English.

DOROTHY MALEK wills her ability to antagonize Mr. Savoia in Consumers to Brian Phelan and her cousin Betty Bator.

ROBERT MAREK wills to Rudy Magiera his ability to struggle through and receive a passing grade in Miss Smith's study hall.

ROBERT MARKIEWICZ leaves to his brother Dave one pair of soccer shoes that have had it.

ROSEMARY MARTIN leaves to her sister Jeannette her seat on the school bus, if she can get it.

JEANNE MARTOWSKI leaves all the fun of the Senior year to Frances Tokarz.

JOHN MATOTT wills to Carol Ann Pollitt his ability to eat two and three hot lunches every day in the cafeteria.

IRENE MAZIARZ leaves her majorette uniform to her cousin Karen Sorcinelli.

THERESA MAZIARZ leaves to Carol LaCroix her seat in Miss Smith's Home Nursing class.

BARBARA MISHOL leaves to Terry Sniadowski her ability to keep her gym suit neat, and her pleasant friendship with Miss Kudlic.

JOAN MORTON leaves to Dickie Palatino her ability to get to school on time—car or no car.

PATRICIA NARREAU leaves to Roger Burrage her locker and anything he may find in it.

WILLIAM NELSON leaves to his brother Jimmy and to Tracy Baldrate his place in the hallway, if each of them ever finds a girl.

JOAN NOWAK leaves her spare time and energy to Sandy Drost.

EDWARD PELLETIER wills to Harry Petrolati his copy of How to Play Tennis, by Pancho Gonzales.

EMILY PEREIRA leaves to Jackie Henderson her seat in her "booth" at Ernie's Spa.

MARGARET PERYEA leaves to Ann Guay, Gloria Chicoine, and Ann Bourdeau the indigestion resulting from the morning ride to school on the bus.

ELEANOR PETERSON wills to Pat Carville her brand-new white sneakers which she likes so much.

GERALD PETROLATI wills to his brother Harry all the luck he's had, and all the notes and information compiled on various subjects during his four-years' internment.

CONNIE PODOSKI leaves to her brother Billy the hope that he will enjoy his last two years at L.H.S. as much as she has.

ROBERT PODOSKI leaves to Tom Duffy, Richard Bushey, and Mile Bonsiewicz his ability to say the right thing at the wrong time.

LENORE PROVOST leaves to Ellen Tremblay her seat in Book-keeping 44. May she get along with Mrs. Cormier as well as she did!

BARBARA RICHARDS leaves to Jackie Henderson five soiled gym towels, a messy pair of sneakers, a slightly used gym suit, and a clean pair of shower clogs.

PATRICIA RICHARDSON leaves her ability to chew gum to Maxine Richards.

JEANNE SANSOUCIE bequeaths her four-year maximum honor cards to that up-and-coming, honor-roll student, Tracy Bald-rate.

PATRICIA SAWICKY wills to Barbara Romanko her ability to hit the right notes at the wrong time!

ANGELINA SIMAO leaves her reserved seat in detention to Nancy Fidalgo.

CAROL SMOLA wills to her sister Barbara the note Miss Brooks "stole" from her in study.

MARY JANE SNIADOWSKI leaves to her sister Terry her four years of high school and all the joys, sorrows, and heartaches which accompany them.

MARILYN SUNTER wills to Mary Queiroga her seat in Mrs. Cormier's class and the long hours spent doing Bookkeeping homework.

RICHARD SZARLAN leaves to Ed Vivier his seat in Mr. Patullo's homeroom.

LORRAINE TALBOT leaves to big Frank Trybulski her Student Patrol post near 217, but hopes that he has enough strength to hold back the eager students.

DONALD TATRO leaves his parking space in front of the school to Stan Zielinski and Tom Duffy, if they want to race for it.

RICHARD TEBALDI leaves Ludlow High School to anyone who wants it in its present condition.

THEODORA TENEROWICZ leaves her typing position on the yearbook to the girl who wants hard work.

DIANE TOWER leaves her ability to get along with Mr. Cournoyer to anyone who needs it.

RAYMOND VIGNEAULT leaves his seat in Miss Murtagh's class to his sister Carol.

GLORIA WAKEM leaves to her brother Teddy all the headaches she had while reciting memory passages in English.

CECILE WALAS leaves to her sister Annette her four-year-old gym suit and sneakers.

RUTH WALLACE leaves to Pat Carville her basketball skills—in hopes that she can get them off the bench more often!

WALTER WARZECKI leaves to Stan Zielinski his ability to race for the parking space in front of the school—and get it, too!

BARBARA WATSON leaves to Sue Bochnia her gift of gab, which she knows from experience will be hard to handle.

CHARLES WIKAR leaves to Gerry O'Gorman his ability to get dancing girls out of an experiment in Chemistry.

JEFFREY WILCOX leaves to any ambitious student his before-school job.

JOYCE WILLIAMSON leaves her love for gym and Miss Kudlic to Nancy Fidalgo.

JENNIE WISNIOWSKI leaves to Jeannie Duquette her typing seat, and the best of luck to her!

CHARLOTTE WRONA leaves to any unfortunate Junior the tests in Mr. Hurley's class.

LORRAINE YARYMOWICZ leaves to Jimmy Duquette the name "Slick," knowing he'll make good use of it.

VICTOR ZABEK leaves his seat in the cafeteria to anyone with a stomach of iron.

We declare the above document to be our first and only testament to date. No other decree shall supersede or supplant it in any way. We hereby appoint Miss Florence M. Saulnier as the executrix and administrator of this, our first will and testament. We authorize her to carry out all bequests regardless of any opposition from the beneficiaries.

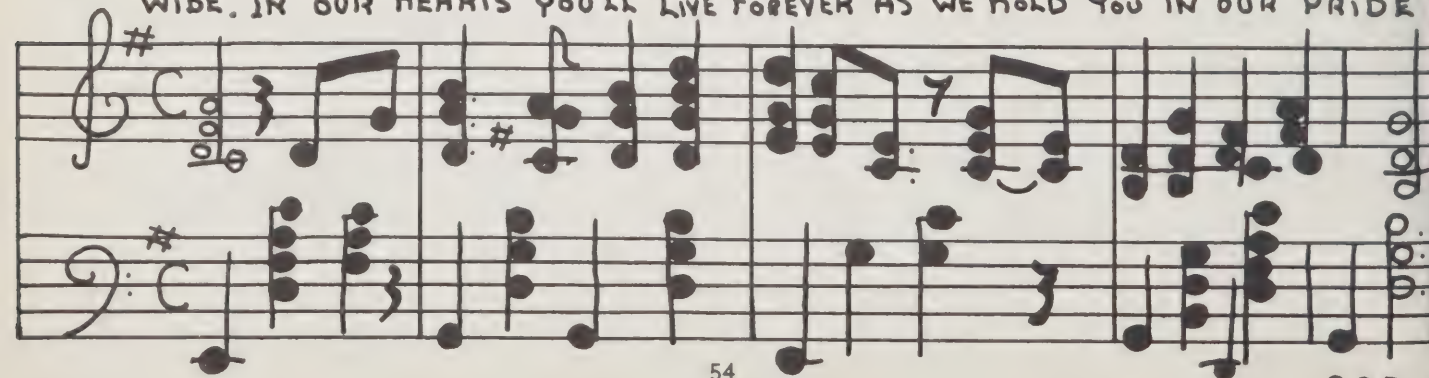

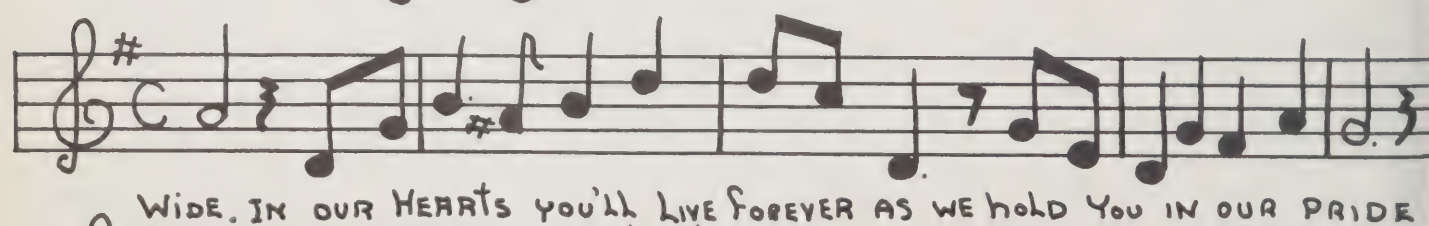

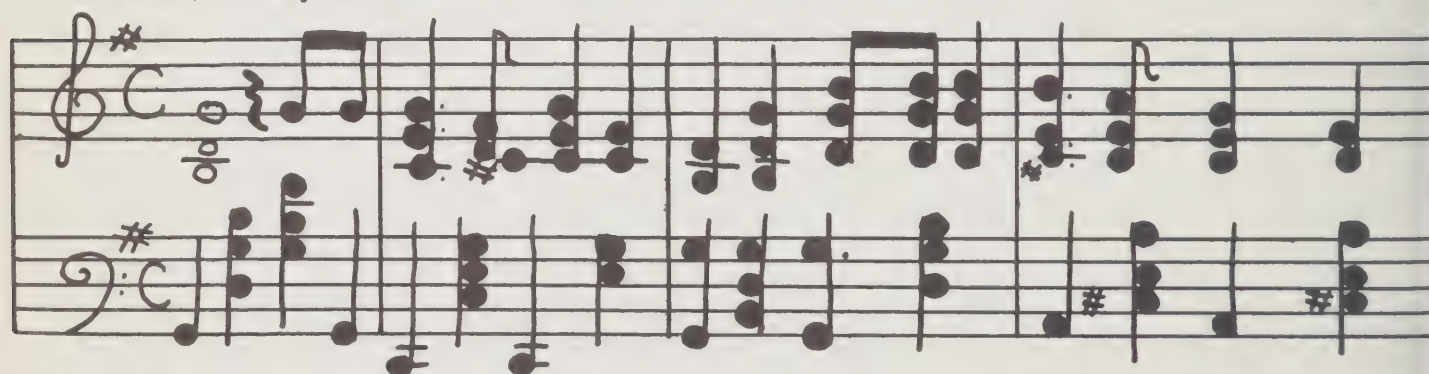

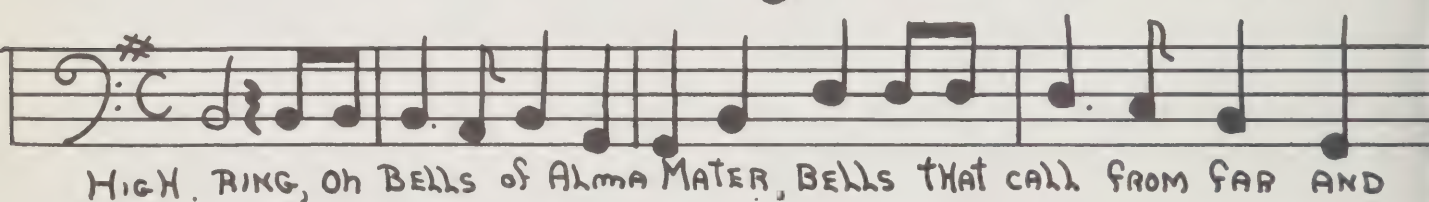

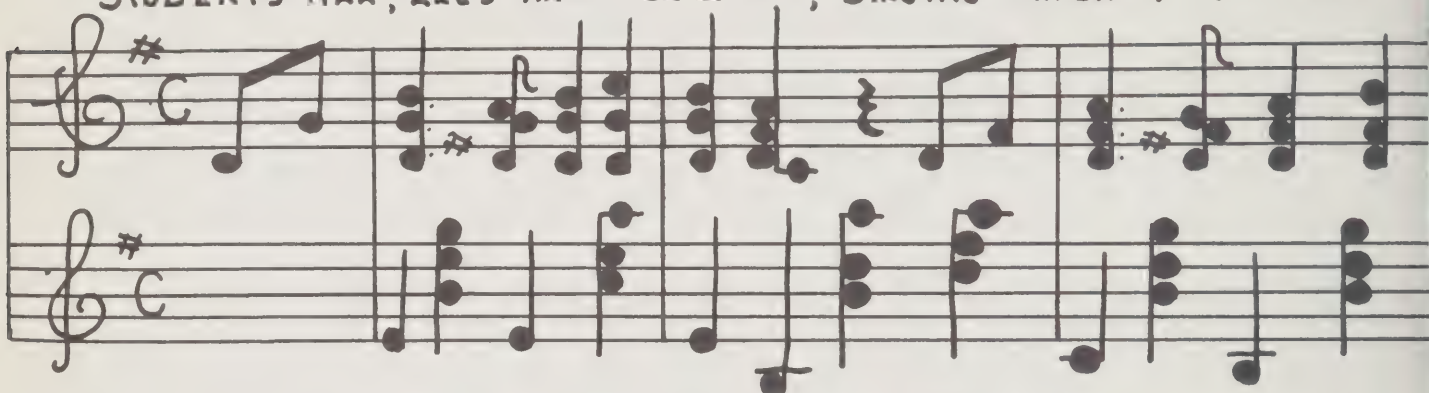

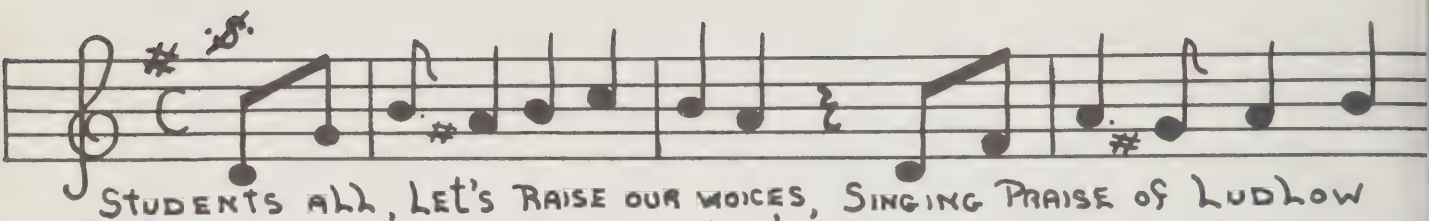

Given at the executive chamber, Room 207 of the Ludlow High School, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nine hundred and fifty-nine, in the twelfth year of our education, and the first year of our maturity and adulthood.

Alma Mater

WORDS AND MUSIC BY
JACQUELINE CHENIE

Handwritten musical score for a song, featuring three systems of music. Each system consists of a vocal melody line (treble clef) and a piano accompaniment line (bass clef). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

ALWAYS IN OUR HEARTS WE'LL CHERISH, MEM'RIES OF OUR LUDLOW HIGH

NE'ER THRU ALL THE YEARS SHALL PERISH YOUR GUIDING HAND FROM GOD ON HIGH

ALWAYS HAILING YOU, ALMA MATER, AS PROUDLY FROM YOUR DOORS WE WANDER

PROPHECY

While we are prophesying midst turmoil, we pray the Divine Creator that the following account will take place in a world of eternal peace. Upon looking through the windows of the future, we see Ludlow as it may look in the year 1979.

At first glimpse we notice that BARBARA WATSON is still taking class pictures. GERALD PETROLATI and EDWARD PELLETIER started playing chess right after graduation and are still continuing their endeavor. CAROLYN AMOS recently out-talked RICHARD DUQUETTE in a town talkathon. PAT BALTAZAR has broken thirteen hearts and has returned as many engagement rings. MARY ANN COUTURE just beat Miss Kudlic at a game of badminton. LINDA DICKEY is still making up work for Miss Saulnier! JACK MATTOT has been named the most eligible bachelor of the century—he has been engaged eighteen times, but no one has gotten him to the altar yet. ANGEL SIMAO, ALICE GAGNE, JEANNE SANSOUCIE, and DOLORES DEC, recently elected members of the school committee, have banned true and false questions from problems exams.

ELEANOR PETERSON, “pro” at the Ludlow Country Club, recently shot a hole in none, a feat which helped her obtain a 59 for eighteen holes. Her caddy is RUTH WALLACE. ELEANOR has a difficult time explaining to her pupil JOAN MORTON that in shooting a birdie, she won't be hunted down by the Bird Watchers' Society!

JOAN NOWAK, CHARLOTTE WRONA, SANDRA AXIOTIS, and PAT SAWICKY, who run a secretarial school, have started a course on “How to Be the Boss's Favorite Secretary.” CHARLES WICKAR, the famous business tycoon, has volunteered his services as the typical boss. RITA KULIG, DIANE LYON, ROSEMARIE MARTIN, EVELYN DVORCHAK, and JUDY BURROUGHS are the first to sign up for the course MARY JANE SNIADOWSKI, a graduate of the school, has been selected by the businessmen of America as “The Secretary We'd Most Like to Have Sit on Our Laps.”

TWEEDY BERGERON is the owner of the “Have Truck, Will Gravel Construction Company” and has just dug a tunnel to China. This project was financed by RICHARD SZARLAN for the purpose of exporting kielbasa to the Chinese. PAUL DORE designed and ran the Super Scooper, while BOB MAREK disposed of the excess dirt by filling in the craters on the moon.

PAT CHABOT has developed a new type of hair dye which changes color according to the weather. First to try it have been TERRY MAZIARZ, PEGGY BROCHU, and DIANE TOWER. DON TATRO has just bought a controlling interest in Forbes and Wallace. ELAINE CHOMYN, eminent chemist, has received the Nobel Prize in Science for mixing red with blue and obtaining—of all things—purple! DONALD DUBE and WALTER WARZECKI are prominent members of the Massachusetts State Police and have done much to prevent hot rodding.

JUDY ABARE is running the largest chicken farm in New England. BARBARA MISHOL and JEANNE GAMACHE are wives of outstanding baseball players and have just bought controlling interests in the Los Angeles Dodgers.

DAVE DZIURA and PETE KLASSANOS have invented a super-atomic fuel for pogo-sticks which has been tested by BILL JACIOW. However, the experiment got out of control; BILL has also become the first human satellite! CHRIS LIMA, hearing of the results of the experiment, has put in his application to replace JACIOW. He hopes the experiment will get out of control again, so that perchance he will be stranded on Venus with all those beautiful women.

Because of his efforts in world peace, WILLIAM NELSON has been appointed Secretary General of the United Nations. Working along with NELSON at the U.N. as interpreters are ROBERT MARKIEWICZ, IRENE MAZIARZ, ANTONIO CONDE, LOUIS GRAVELINE, MARY LOPATA, and JENNIE WISNIOWSKI. BARBARA RICHARDS is importing and selling Turkish cigarettes in the gift shop. BARBARA BLANCHARD and ROSEMARY CIPRIANO are competent U.N. Guides. GEORGIANA FALCONER, who repainted portions of the U.N. Building, has been complimented on her work in an article in the Times Tribune written by that well-known syndicated columnist, LORRAINE TALBOT.

PAT NARREAU, the new Hilda Hatter of Hollywood, has employed PAT RICHARDSON to make her hats, while LENORE PROVOST is creating her dresses for the 1979 season. Often appearing in PAT'S column are CONNIE PODOSKI, whose latest picture is Cat on a Hot Stove, another Academy Award winner directed by JOHN HUMBER. RAY VIGNEAULT, Hollywood playboy who is frequently seen with Mamie Jaynesfield, known in Ludlow as JOYCE WILLIAMSON, and BRUCE ELLIS and SALLY DROST are co-stars of Tarzan Meets Annie Oakley.

Mr. JAMES BRENNAN is president, chairman of the board, and owner of the Holeless Doughnut Company. FLASH!! He has just won a chain of pool rooms from JOHN GUZIK at a hot session at The Big Bad Boo CHENAILLE'S Casino. JUDY DUMAS, whose smash hit record of "They Call Him Snowshoes, I Call Him Billy"—composed by CHET LATA—has just passed the twenty million mark, is the starred vocalist. Her record did so well because of the efforts of her agent, DICKY TEBALDI, who pushed it in Alaska. Others billed at the Casino are "The Flippin' Flappers," a group consisting of DOT MALEK, GERRY DOMINICK, CAROL SMOLA, LORRAINE YARYMOWICZ, and DIANE ELLIS, and MARSHA "Miss Improvisation" GILMAN, who is the mistress of the ivories. On the job at all times is JACKY GAMACHE, bouncer par excellence.

PAUL BRODEUR and BOB PODOSKI are training seals for the VICTOR ZABEK and MACKEY Brothers' Circus.

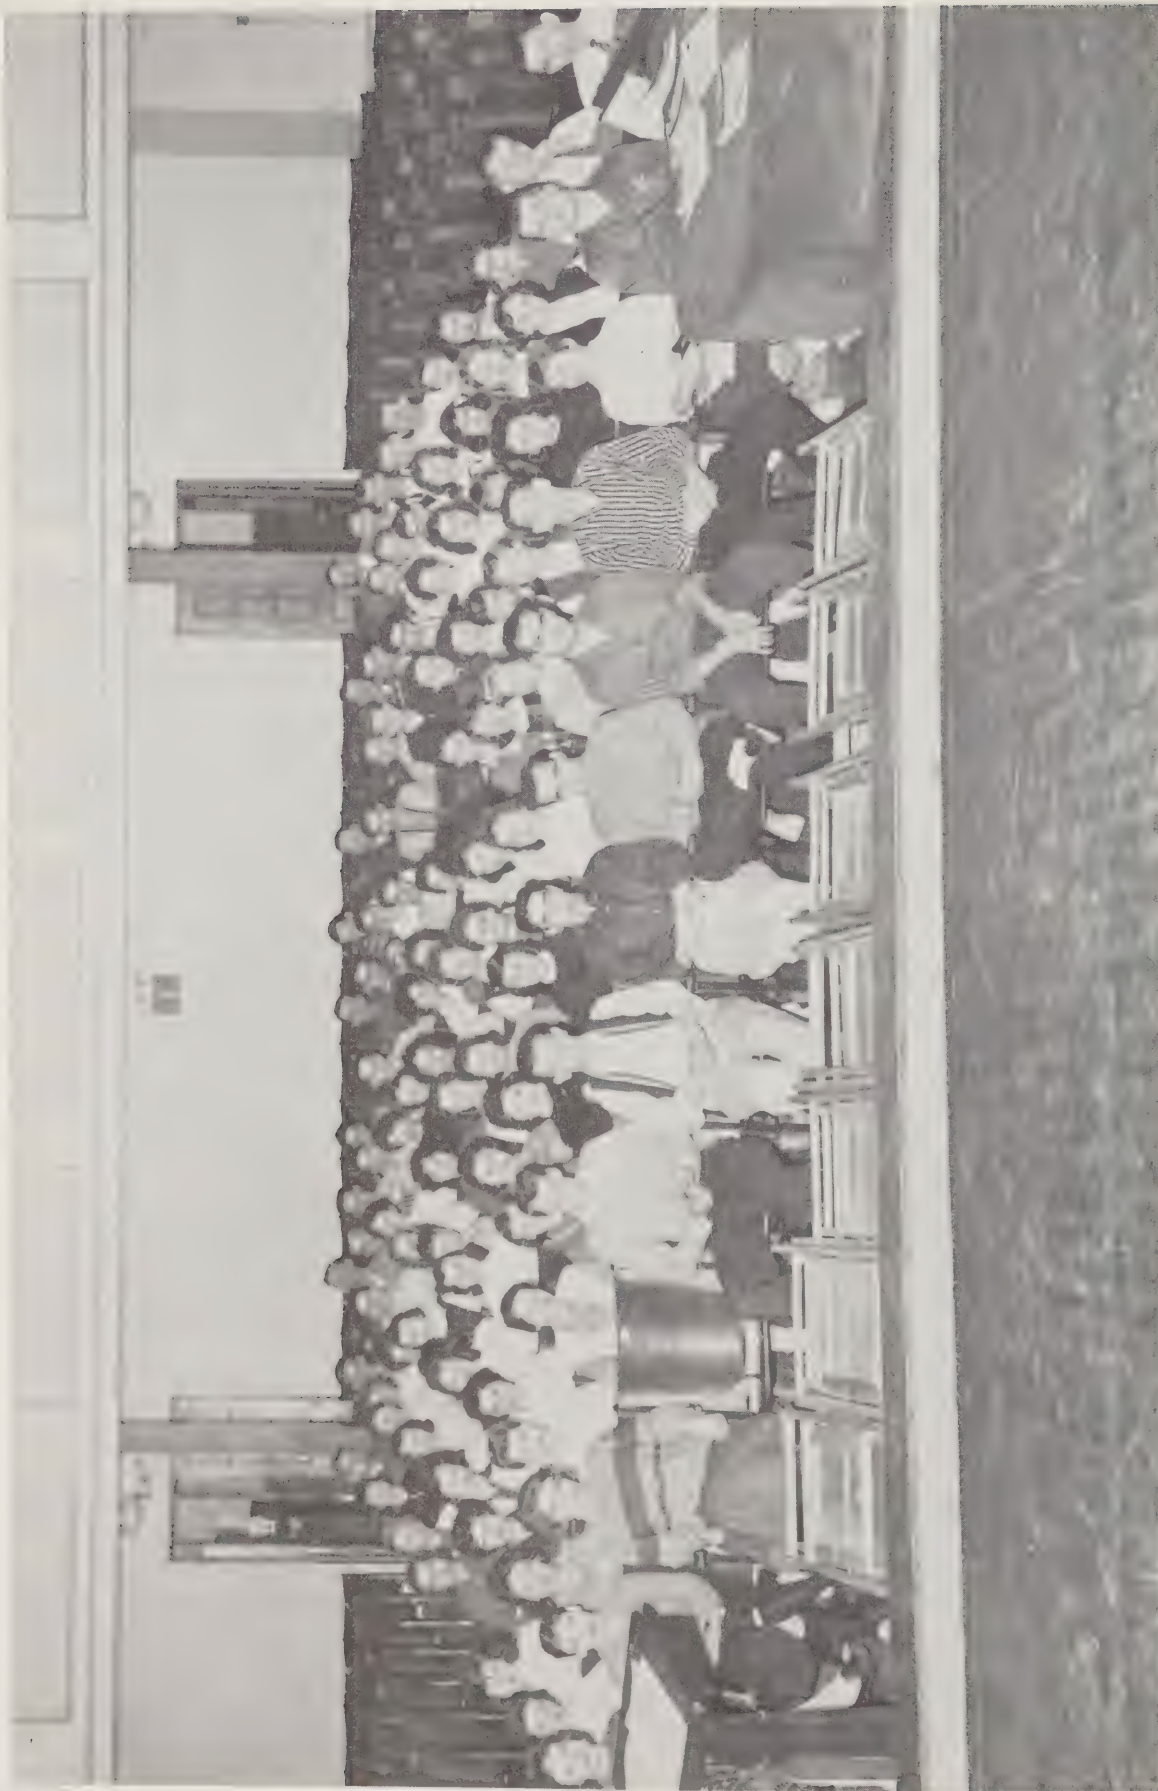

In the side show we find ED BRUNELLE, who is astounding the world with his ability to shatter shot glasses with his deep bass voice. "The World's Fastest Typist," JEANNE ZEIPE MARTOWSKI, is featured in the show, but one problem arose—after she exceeded the 240-word-per-minute mark, no one could find a way to stop her until crafty GLORIA WAKEM pulled the plug of her electric typewriter from the outlet!

PAULINE CYRANOWSKI became so enthused with the ice cream business that she has opened an international chain of snack bars. PAT HENRICHON has been named manager of an Alaskan branch which specializes in tortillas and hot tamales. BARBARA LEWIS and TOMMY CARROLL operate another branch in Mau Mau territory. They pacify the Mau Maus by feeding them southern fried chicken and candied yams.

The HIERSCHE brothers, JOHN and HERMAN, are manufacturing Polish Bon Bons. JEFF WILCOX is having a sweet time testing them. CECILE WALAS, "DUCHESS" TENEROWICZ, JANE KIELBANIA, and DORIS MAE JARVIS are running a canary-sitting agency. CAROL PEREIRA and MARGARET PERYEA have written a book of advice to the lovelorn. MARILYN SUNTER has just been appointed teacher of English at Ludlow High, thus taking Miss Saulnier's place, while LORRAINE FONTAINE has agreed to teach at the local kindergarten.

Life with its many twists and turns will change in the course of twenty years just as we shall change. We shall also go our ways and meet many times along the road. With this in mind, we lay down our pens and rest our weary brains. Thus, we prophesy!
